

Name _____ Date _____

Selection Vocabulary

Focus

propped adj. supported by something under or against edible adj. fit or safe to eat lingered v. past tense of linger: to be slow in leaving

inspired v. influenced unjustly adv. unfairly

persecuted v. past tense of persecute: to treat in a cruel and unjust way logic n. a way of thinking about something apparently adv. as far as one can judge by the way things appear assumed v. past tense of assume: to take for granted reality n. something actual or real

Practice

Write C in the blank if the selection vocabulary has been defined correctly. Write I in the blank if it has been defined incorrectly, and write the correct word on the line.

1. Something that is edible can be safely eaten. _____
2. Reality is a way of thinking about something. _____
3. To be propped is to be supported by something. _____
4. When a person is inspired, he or she is influenced. _____
5. Apparently means "unfairly." _____
6. When something is taken for granted, it is persecuted. _____
7. Something that lingered took a long time to leave. _____