Multiple-Meaning Words

Focus

Many words have more than one meaning. You will often need to look at context clues to figure out which meaning is being used in a particular sentence.

Practice

The underlined words in the sentences below have multiple meanings. Write a new sentence with each underlined word, but use another meaning.

1. At the museum, I saw a lot of old furniture encased in glass.

---

---

2. I came in second place in the spelling bee.

---

---

3. The goats ran around inside their pen.

---

---

4. If you can be present for each meeting, I will entrust you with taking notes.

---

---

5. A law firm is located on the third floor of that building.
