

Name _____ Date _____

Apply

Read each description below. Then make an inference based on what the details tell you about the person or the event, and write it on the line.

6. The wind picked up, and the temperature dropped. Leaves flipped over and displayed the lighter green color underneath. The last bits of blue disappeared from the sky as the clouds thickened.
-

7. As each guest entered, Sam welcomed him or her to the party. He made sure everyone was introduced to one another. When he saw Alice sitting by herself, he invited her to join a game of cards. After the party, Sam wrote thank-you notes to all of his guests.
-

8. Drew came inside and dropped his jacket and backpack onto the floor. In the kitchen, he poured himself a glass of milk and grabbed an apple. The milk carton and a small puddle were left sitting on the counter when he left the room. As he plopped onto the couch, apple slices tumbled off his plate.
-

9. The two men put on gloves before they touched the painting. They carefully took it off the wall and placed it delicately onto the cart. The painting sank softly into the foam and blankets that lined the cart.
-