

Name _____ Date _____

Selection Vocabulary

Focus

attitude n. a way of acting, thinking, or feeling agriculture, trade, government, art, and science are highly developed claim v. to declare as one's own section n. a part of an area magnificent adj. outstanding; excellent concert n. a musical performance spellbound adj. fascinated; filled with delight or wonder finest adj. best; most excellent civilizations n. plural of civilization: an advanced human society in which forbidden adj. off-limits

trolley n. a streetcar that runs on tracks and gets its power from an electric wire overhead

Practice

Write the vocabulary word that best matches the underlined word or phrase in the sentences below.

1. You are not allowed to get a driver's license until you are sixteen. _____
2. The tourists were filled with wonder by the sight of Old Faithful erupting.

3. Tanya received a standing ovation at the end of her musical performance.

4. The public's way of thinking about exercise has changed a lot throughout history. _____
5. The entire cast was outstanding in their performance of Les Misérables.

6. We rode in a streetcar on tracks to get downtown. _____
7. That part of the auditorium is reserved for family members. _____