

Name _____ Date _____

Selection Vocabulary

Focus

dissolve v. to mix into liquid

retirement n. the act of taking oneself away from a job or occupation

inefficient adj. not offering a good use of money or effort

vents n. plural of vent: an opening through which a gas passes

charged v. past tense of charge: to fill with electricity

demonstration n. something that explains, proves, or shows something clearly

donors n. plural of donor: a person who gives something electrocuted v. past tense of electrocute: to kill by means of a very strong electric shock attracted v. past tense of attract: to cause to come near insulators n. plural of insulator: a material that does not carry an electric charge

Practice

Write the vocabulary word that best matches the underlined phrase in each sentence below.

1. A thank-you dinner was held for the people who gave money. _____
2. The first step is to mix into liquid the tablets in water. _____
3. It is not a good use of energy to drive a vehicle that gets low gas mileage.
_____
4. My telephone needs to be filled with electricity every few days. _____
5. Many people try to save for the act of taking oneself away from a job. _____