

Name _____ Date _____

Comparatives and Superlatives

Focus

A comparative adjective or adverb compares one person, thing, or action with another.

I am taller now than I was two years ago.

- A superlative adjective or adverb compares one person, thing or action with several others.

That is the prettiest painting in the museum.

Practice

For each sentence below, place a check mark on the first line if the boldfaced comparative or superlative is formed correctly. If it is not, write the correct form on the second line.

1. _____ That is the most big watermelon I have ever seen.

2. _____ I have been much healthier this winter than last winter. _____

3. _____ Mr. Thompson told me I needed a specificer topic for my report.

4. _____ Getting from one place to another is more easy if you have a map.

5. _____ Prince Edward Island is the beautifullest place I have ever visited.
