

Name _____ Date _____

Selection Vocabulary

Focus

utter v. to express out loud declarations n. plural of declaration: a written statement that makes something known draft n. a rough copy of something written rights n. plural of right: a just, moral, or lawful claim bombarded v. past tense of bombard: to attack with bombs or heavy fire from big guns retreat v. to move back debate n. a discussion between groups that do not agree exposing v. leaving open or without protection composition n. something put together or created, especially something written treason n. the betraying of one's country by helping the enemy

Practice

Circle the letter of the answer to each question

- Which is an example of utter?
 - to read silently
 - to express a thought out loud
- Which is an example of exposing?
 - not wearing a coat when it is cold
 - yelling loudly at a game
- Which is an example of a composition?
 - a book report for class
 - a contest
- Which is an example of a draft?
 - a book published for the first time
 - the first version of a story
- Which is an example of rights?
 - federal and state governments
 - liberty and the pursuit of happiness