Sequence

Focus

Sequence means the order in which events occur. Writers use time words and order words, such as first, second, last, earlier, later, now, then, following, next, after, during, finally, morning, day, evening, and night, to indicate sequence.

Practice

Each of the following sentences describes an event from “The Journal of Wong Ming-Chung.” Read each sentence, and then rewrite the sentences on the lines provided, placing the events in the sequence they occurred.

Wong Ming-Chung discovers gold on the shanty floor.

Uncle leaves the group.

Wong Ming-Chung and Uncle send money home to China.

Uncle comes to California.

Wong Ming-Chung and Uncle meet in California.
