

Name _____ Date _____

Sentence Types

Focus

- A declarative sentence makes a statement. It always ends with a period.
- An interrogative sentence asks a question. It ends with a question mark.
- An imperative sentence gives a command or makes a request. It usually ends with a period.
- An exclamatory sentence expresses a strong feeling. It ends with an exclamation point.

Practice

Add the appropriate punctuation to these sentences.

1. Watch out
2. After the sun came out, we went swimming
3. Who knows the answer to question five

Add necessary punctuation and draw three lines under letters that should be capitalized at the beginning of sentences.

Do you know much about Woodrow Wilson he was born in Virginia in 1856. his father was a minister and taught Woodrow to read at a young age. what a bright boy he was after attending college, he became a professor at Princeton University and later, the governor of New Jersey. in 1912, he was elected President of the United States.